

Colorado Grants Guide Research Volunteer

The Community Resource Center (CRC), headquartered in Denver, Colorado is a statewide nonprofit management support organization providing low-cost, high-quality programs, resources, and networking opportunities to hundreds of nonprofits throughout the state to strengthen Colorado communities.

For over 20 years, CRC has published the Colorado Grants Guide, Colorado's leading online tool for grant funding research. This comprehensive resource guide contains over 750 profiles of local foundations and trusts, corporations, national funders, and government agencies that support Colorado nonprofit organizations.

The Research Volunteer will play an important role in ensuring that the Colorado Grants Guide is accurate and up-to-date. This volunteer opportunity will consist of researching funders who provide support to Colorado nonprofits by reviewing organizational websites, annual reports, financial information, and IRS tax documents. This is an excellent opportunity to gain in-depth knowledge about the giving priorities and application processes of hundreds of funders and to truly impact nonprofit organizations across the state.

Major Responsibilities:

- Commit to working 3-5 hours weekly as part of the team that researches, develops, and publishes the Colorado Grants Guide
- Efficiently research foundation, corporation, and governmental agency funder profiles currently in the Guide using a variety of online resources
- Accurately enter data of researched funders into template while maintaining a consistent writing style
- Communicate with funders to ensure profile accuracy
- Other responsibilities may be assigned based on the volunteer's skill set and specific interests

Qualifications:

- Excellent communications, writing, and editing skills
- Task oriented and deadline driven
- Highly organized with strong attention to detail
- Effective task and time management
- Tact, diplomacy, and ability to positively represent CRC in communications
- Ability to work independently
- General computer proficiency
- Ability to enter data accurately and efficiently per established guidelines
- Experience researching on the internet; creatively searching to locate information
- Ability to travel to CRC's Denver office (if working on-site) OR access to a computer and Internet (if working remotely)
- Agreement with and commitment to CRC's mission and values

Work Schedule/Location

- Schedule and location are flexible, as long as 3-5 hour weekly commitment is met. On-site hours can be scheduled Monday through Friday, 9am-5pm. Research/updates can be accomplished remotely after required on-site training.
- CRC is located at 789 Sherman St., Ste. 210 in Denver and accessible by public transit. Limited parking is available.
- Required 4-hour orientation and training will be held in the downtown area at a date and time to be determined.

Benefits:

- Position provides opportunities to increase your knowledge of nonprofit management, personal development, and professional skills.
- Volunteers may participate in specific CRC-led trainings and workshops during the period of their service
- Volunteers will participate in a project that has a direct impact on CRC's ability to deliver its services and fulfill its mission across Colorado and thus to contribute to the success and sustainability of Colorado nonprofit subscribers

Supervision: Resource Coordinator, Kelli Mowrey

Start: Upon completion of 4-hour training

End: On-going

Hours: 3-5 hours per week for maintenance research and database updates
