

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS: COMMON GRANT APPLICATION

Revising Colorado's Common Grant Application (CGA) was a volunteer effort that required untold hours of work from many individuals extremely dedicated to enhancing Colorado's nonprofit sector.

From start to finish, the project took over two years. The work was carried forward by the following committees: Executive Committee, Drafting Committee, Communications Committee, Technology Committee, User's Guide Working Group, Beta Test Working Group, Rollout Working Group, and Training Working Group.

Sincere thanks to the individuals involved for generously sharing their time and talent. In addition, sincere thanks to their employers for allowing them the flexibility to spend time on this project.

We also extend thanks to the dozens of grantmakers and hundreds of nonprofits that responded to two different on-line surveys providing feedback that guided this process.

Special thanks to the following:

The David and Lucile Packard Foundation for creating a user-friendly Common Grant Forms website and hosting the website for two years.

The Anschutz Family Foundation, Denver Foundation, Gay & Lesbian Fund for Colorado, and Kaiser Permanente for providing funds to cover expenses related to the effort.

JVA Consulting for loaning us their intern, Rachel Stumpf, and the facilitation services of Martha Vail.

The Gay & Lesbian Fund for Colorado, The Buell Foundation, the Daniels Fund, and The Denver Foundation for feeding the committees on multiple occasions!

John Hodges with the Colorado Nonprofit Association and Karen Mather with the Gates Family Foundation for their expert editing services.

Peter Konrad for allowing us to freely use materials from his book Financial Management for Nonprofits: Keys to Success.

The Colorado Nonprofit Association for allowing us to freely copy materials from Principles and Practices for Nonprofit Excellence in Colorado.

Nell Maguire of Spring Creative communication design for designing the CGA logo.

And more special thanks to the following individuals who participated in the beta test of the CGA. Their experience and feedback led to the creation of the final version of the application itself and the accompanying User's Guide.

The nonprofit participants wrote a mock proposal using the new CGA, responded to a questionnaire to provide their feedback, and participated in a meeting to have a more in-depth conversation on the experience of using the revised CGA. We salute their willingness to give of their time so generously to help ensure that the CGA would be an effective tool.
