What is Rural Philanthropy Days (RPD)?

- RPD is a statewide program with 23 years of history coming to Southeast Colorado.
- RPD brings over 200 local nonprofit organizations and more than 30 funders from the Front Range and the Southeast Region together to discuss the needs and strengths of the sector.

What does Southeast Colorado Rural Philanthropy Days do for my community?

- Southeast Colorado Rural Philanthropy Days is a three-day conference for nonprofit professionals, public agencies, elected officials, business leaders and funders to learn from one another and collaborate on projects and funding opportunities.
- RPD allows funders to see first-hand the eight counties that make Southeast Colorado great—Baca, Bent, Crowley, Huerfano, Kiowa, Las Animas, Otero and Prowers counties.
- RPD bring much needed attention and grant dollars to the eight-county region and their nonprofit organizations.

How can I help make this event a success for the eight-county region?

- Donors and sponsors are needed to make this volunteer-organized event possible.
- Donations can be cash, in-kind, or a combination of the two!
- Make your gift go twice as far! Ask about Pioneer Natural Resources generous matching funds!
